13 DIPLOMA IN CHINA STUDIES

This exciting programme is open to anyone over the age of 18 to spend one year at XJTLU studying Chinese language and China Studies under some of the world's leading academics in these fields.

FIND YOURSELF... AT THE HEART OF THE ASIAN ECONOMY

Xi'an Jiaotong-Liverpool University is a unique international university in China, co-founded and accredited by the University of Liverpool, a member of the Russell Group of 24 leading UK universities with a shared reputation for academic prestige; and Xi'an Jiaotong University, a member of the influential C9 league of universities in China.

Teaching at XJTLU is conducted in English, allowing you to continue your study in any field, while experiencing China's deep history, rich culture and exciting modern cities.

We hope that you will be inspired to join us for the experience of a lifetime that will help you stand out from the crowd in the graduate employment market.

"Knowing about China will be a necessity, regardless of one's profession or occupation. China's economic growth has already had a dramatic effect on the rest of the world, and given its continued growth, it will have an even greater impact on countries and people of the world.

We welcome you to experience this fascinating, ancient and exciting country at XJTLU."

PROFESSOR DAVID GOODMAN
VICE PRESIDENT, ACADEMIC AFFAIRS
PROFESSOR OF CHINA STUDIES

DOING BUSINESS IN A CHANGING CHINA SUMMER SCHOOL

Get first-hand business insight into the world's largest consumer market and second largest economy, delivered by the country's largest Sino-foreign university.

China is rich in history, culture and tradition, and in the past few decades has experienced unprecedented economic growth. As China cements its position as a global player, there is a growing demand for business professionals capable of operating in this important international market.

From the impact of the trade war to socialism and capitalism in the Chinese context, the programme will provide an overview of the many factors influencing China's business environment.

Based in Suzhou, a 25-minute train ride from Shanghai, you will study in a city home to nearly 100 Fortune 500 companies. Suzhou's proximity to these multinationals means you will have the chance to participate in official on-site visits at world-leading companies.

If you are a university student or young professional wanting to explore China and the reasons behind its huge economic growth, the XJTLU 'Doing Business in a Changing China Summer School' is for you. Upon completion, you will have a solid understanding of this rising global superpower and valuable experience in China to add to your résumé.

"Cross-culture capability is critical for multinational companies in China. The fast-changing market is driving a need for professionals to be equipped with academic knowledge, practical capability and experience.

In the PwC You Plus training course, I am delighted to see how motivated XJTLU students are to gain new perspectives of the Chinese business environment, culture and practice."

CHINESE LANGUAGE SUMMER SCHOOL

Learn something new this summer. Spend 2, 4 or 6 weeks learning the Chinese language while experiencing one of the world's most fascinating countries. The levels we teach include beginner, elementary, low intermediate, high intermediate and advanced.

This course is also available for a 2-week large group package.

“Coming to China for the first time might be a bit daunting. But you'll quickly find yourself getting comfortable with the Chinese culture, food and places. The old and new China stand side-by-side and both are fascinating to explore.”

LASLO, GERMANY

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- Each week will be comprised of 15 hours of classroom-based language lessons, and teaching takes place in small classes grouped according to level.
- All four language skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking) will be taught with a focus on useable, everyday language that you might expect to use if you are visiting, living, working or travelling in China.
- A key part of the programme are the Chinese cultural activities such as calligraphy, martial arts, cooking, embroidery, tea ceremony and more. These provide the opportunity to practice your new language, learn more about China and have lots of fun too.
- You will also travel around the world-famous city of Suzhou and visit UNESCO famed traditional gardens, local restaurants and the unmissable world city of Shanghai.

DIPLOMA IN CHINA STUDIES

Whether this is your first experience in higher education or you are considering furthering your knowledge of China, the XJTLU accredited Diploma in China Studies offers a great opportunity to develop your professional skills and gain a more in-depth understanding of China.

Students enrolling for the full year typically take four modules in each semester, of which one will be a Chinese language module and three will be China studies.

The eight modules over the academic year lead to the XJTLU Diploma in China Studies, awarded at the successful completion of the study year.

Chinese language modules are open to all students. You can take modules suited to your level of Chinese language ability, ranging from complete beginner to advanced learner.

“The university is modern and easy to get around. There are numerous shops on campus and several smaller shopping villages in the surrounding area. The professors are all extremely friendly and accommodating to the international students - all 1000 of us!”

MORGAN JAMES, AUSTRALIA

“In an increasingly competitive world and globalised nature of the modern workplace, it is important to make yourself stand out from the crowd. Not many people can say that they've taken it upon themselves to move out of their comfort zone into a completely different society and culture.”
