

Managerial Accounting ACC-ISS205

Course Description

This course teaches students how to extract and modify costs in order to make informed managerial decisions. Planning is covered by topics including activity-based costing, budgeting, flexible budgeting, cost-volume-profit analysis, cost estimating, and the costs of outsourcing. Control is covered by topics including standard costing, variance analysis, responsibility accounting, and performance evaluation. Emphasis is placed on cost terminology, cost behavior, cost systems, and the limitations concerning the use of average costs

Required Textbook

Managerial Accounting, 4th Edition by Stacey Whitecotton and Robert Libby and Fred Phillips

Prerequisites

Financial Accounting

Course Hours

The course has 20 class sessions in total. Each class session is 150 minutes in length, for a total of 3000 minutes of in-class time. The University awards 4 credits for this course. Different universities may count course credits differently. Consult officials at your own home institution.

Learning Outcomes

Upon the completion of the course, the students should be able to

- Obtain a basic understanding of managerial accounting concepts
- Conduct cost-volume-profit analyses
- Differentiate between job-order and process costing
- Develop an understanding of the role of activity-based costing and management in decision making
- Preparation of schedules used for profit planning and analyses of budget variances
- Discuss how relevant information is used to make marketing and production decisions

Attendance

Occasionally, due to illness or other unavoidable circumstance, a student may need to miss a class. The University's policy requires a medical certificate to be excused. Any absence may impact on the student's grade. Moreover, the University's policy is that a student who has more than 3 absences will fail the course. Arriving late or leaving early will count as a partial absence.

Course Requirements

During the term, there will be one midterm exam (30%), one final exam (40%), and two quizzes (20%) Class participation and homework account for 10% of your total grade, so make sure to come to class and participate.
