PROFESSOR YOUMIN XI

EXECUTIVE PRESIDENT, XI'AN JIAOTONG-LIVERPOOL UNIVERSITY
PRO-VICE-CHANCELLOR, UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL
DISTINGUISHED PROFESSOR OF ARTS, HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES, XI'AN JIAOTONG UNIVERSITY

Graduation is not the end of learning but the beginning of venturing into the world.

Dickens once described the 19th century as “the best of times, the worst of times, the age of wisdom, the age of foolishness.” These words are just as relevant today. A vast array of disruptive technologies has transformed the world into a digital, interconnected, and intelligent global village, fundamentally reshaping human behaviour and lifestyles, and consequently altering societal structures. While reaping immense benefits, humanity is simultaneously grappling with challenges characterised by uncertainty, ambiguity, complexity, changeability, and scarcity.

To be born in this era is a privilege, granting us the opportunity to view ourselves, organisations, society, and humanity from a global perspective, as well as providing greater chances to explore the world and participate in global competition. Yet, being born in this era also presents challenges, compelling us to confront unprecedented uncertainties, profound societal transformations, and demanding life decisions and risks.

I believe that your time at XJTLU—through learning, training, and growth—has instilled in you the responsibility of a global citizen, the courage to venture beyond borders, the foundation to embrace challenges, and the capability to take bold action.

As you step onto the grand stage of this vibrant world, remember our university motto: “Light and Wings”. Dare to pursue your dreams, and may we celebrate your happiness in life and success in your career!

PROFESSOR TIM JONES

VICE-CHANCELLOR, UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL

Congratulations to you on your first day as a member of Xi’an Jiaotong-Liverpool University alumni community.

We are very proud of you and hope that you have the opportunity to celebrate your achievements with your family and friends.

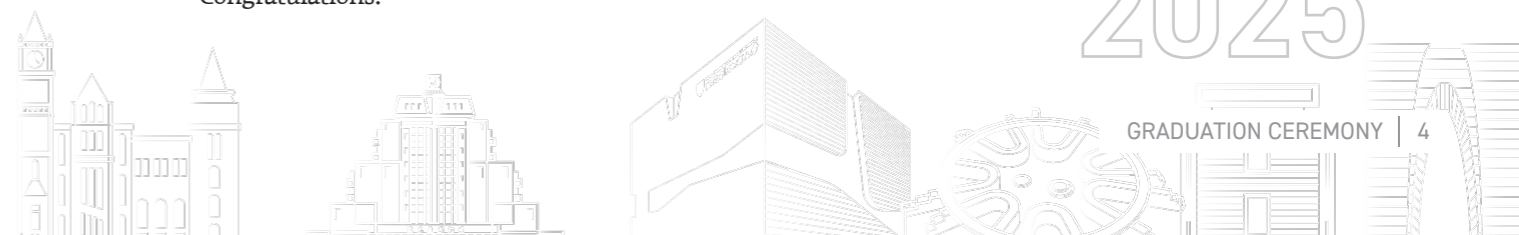

We trust that you will look back on your time in Suzhou with fondness and act as ambassadors for the institution as you embark upon the next stage of your journey through life.

Attaining the right degree from the right university is essential if it is to count towards a successful future. Those of you graduating today have done both and I am sure that you will go on to achieve great things in your career.

I too am an alumnus of the University of Liverpool, having gained both my undergraduate degree and PhD here more than thirty years ago. I am very proud of how Xi’an Jiaotong-Liverpool University has developed and progressed and I look forward to continuing this over the coming years.

Our very best wishes go to all our graduates. I hope you will keep in touch with both XJTLU and the University of Liverpool and let us know if there is anything we can do to help along the way.

Congratulations!

PROFESSOR WENQUAN TAO

For those of you who are graduating from XJTU, I encourage you to think outside the box and leave your comfort zone, be open to different viewpoints, think critically, explore uncharted territories, and always chase your dreams.

THE XJTLU GRADUATION CEREMONY

The UK tradition of graduation can be traced back over 800 years. It is an important rite of passage: for the majority of UK students it marks the transition from education to employment, a time of new opportunities and greater responsibilities.

In common with UK tradition, the XJTLU ceremony commences with a procession of senior officers and academic staff. After opening speeches by both the Executive President of XJTLU and the Vice-Chancellor of the University of Liverpool (UoL), each graduands are presented for their degrees. When their names are called, the graduands walk onto stage, where the XJTLU Executive President moves the tassels on their mortarboards from right to left. Afterwards, they are congratulated by the President of XJTLU and corresponding school representatives. At the end of the ceremony, the platform party processes out of the hall, followed by the new graduates.

Academic dress is very important to graduation ceremonies. Academic dress typically consists of a robe, a hood, and a hat with a tassel. At XJTLU, students graduating from bachelor degrees wear square academic hats called 'mortarboards', a traditional UK-style robe and a Chinese-style hood in one of six colours. The colours signify the XJTLU awards which the students receive: pink for Bachelor of Arts; blue for Bachelor of Engineering; gold for Bachelor of Economics; silver-grey for Bachelor of Management; copper for Bachelor of Science; pink for Master of Arts, Blue for Master of Science and red for PhD.

BACKGROUND MUSIC

PRELUDE TO THE XJTLU ANTHEM

The processional music accompanying the entrance of University leaders and faculty representatives is a variation based on the melody of XJTLU's anthem. Through the exquisite interplay of instruments and vocals, it paints a series of vivid and imaginative scenes, carrying heartfelt blessings for the future of XJTLU's graduates. The XJTLU Anthem Project was initiated and guided by Professor Youmin Xi, the Executive President of XJTLU. It is being collaboratively created by Mr. Yibin Yu from the Academy of Film and Creative Technology, alongside a professional team, faculty, and students. The anthem will narrate the University's journey in educational innovation and is set to debut during the 20th-anniversary celebrations. Stay tuned for this exciting milestone.

2025 GRADUATES

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS
SCHOOL SUZHOU

JORG BLEY, PROFESSOR

DEAN, INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS SCHOOL SUZHOU

Dear Members of the IBSS Class of 2025,

You made it!

The day you have all been looking forward to, has finally arrived. The day of your graduation.

It is hard to believe that after the countless hours of learning and studying in and outside the classroom, the all-nighters you pulled before exams, the range of group work and presentations, the research projects you conducted, the FYPs or dissertations you drafted, and the many assessments you took, this part of your academic journey is over.

You have gained a tremendous amount of factual knowledge, acquired the technical skills needed in the evolving digital world, developed important soft skills, and formed an awareness of social responsibility. As a result, you have become independent and self-motivated critical thinkers with open minds and an international perspective. Your degrees represent the best educational elements the East and the West have to offer. Trust in what you have learned and be proud of the person you have become. I am confident that you are ready to take your place in society, be it in the corporate world, academia, or governmental organizations.

As the world around us evolves at an ever-increasing pace, life-long learning is no longer a theoretical concept, but the key to your professional success and continuing personal growth. Many of you will take on jobs in the not-so-distant future, that don't even exist today, requiring a frequent update of your current skills and the acquisition of new ones. As XJTU becomes your alma mater, IBSS will remain your educational partner in this dynamic and complex economic environment.

Whether you become an employee or an entrepreneur, it is important not to be afraid of failure. If it occurs, and it will, learn from it, embrace it and move on. In fact, without failure there is no true growth.

As you navigate through life, I urge you to never stop in your pursuit of knowledge or be complacent in the face of mediocrity. Above all, never give up on your dreams.

You are now the youngest alumni of XJTU's IBSS.

Congratulations. Well done!
