Abstract

In the new era of Xi Jinping, the Yangtze River Delta Region has entered into a new stage of integration in its development. With “higher quality integration” as its objective, the region is poised to make substantial progress in its economic integration. More specifically, the new targets of the Yangtze River Delta Region for the new era of Xi Jinping are as follows. By 2025, the Yangtze River Delta Region will become a “hub platform for one belt one road and Yangtze River economic belt and a world-class urban agglomeration, realize socialist modernization ten years ahead of the rest of China, and become a demonstration zone for other regions in China in areas of innovation, coordination, green development, common prosperity, and opening to the outside world. In a word, with the objective of “higher quality integration” and the targets of integration in these five areas, the Yangtze River Delta Region will set up a new role model for integrated development for other regions of China in the future.
